

MUSIC, MOVEMENT AND STORYTELLING WITH UNDER FIVES AND THEIR ADULTS

Fun, imaginative and multicultural, all workshops are full of creative learning opportunities. Sessions aim to spark the imagination, encourage expressive communication (verbal and non-verbal) and foster social skills within a supportive and safe atmosphere.

ONE-OFF WORKSHOPS OR A SERIES OF SESSIONS:

- ☺ Engage children and their adults in creative activities
- ☺ Boost confidence and self-esteem
- ☺ Increase listening skills
- ☺ Support musical development
- ☺ Develop the singing voice
- ☺ Nurture creative movement skills
- ☺ Inspire creative use of story
- ☺ Promote confident use of percussion instruments
- ☺ Celebrate a multicultural and traditional song repertoire

Freelance artist and facilitator Alison Blunt has many years of experience both leading sessions with Early Years children, their parents, carers and staff and providing training for practitioners interested in developing music, movement and storytelling. Workshops take place in your setting.
